

Due to the Covid-19 Situation and Unreal Times

Champagne Renovations will still be able to provide a detailed estimate for any new projects you would like to have done.

We will be doing this through pictures, e-mails and the telephone and for exterior work through scheduled visits – keeping everyone safe. This will still allow us to plan out your desired projects and book them in

TO OUR EXISTING CUSTOMERS

Champagne Renovations has decided to postpone new renovation starts until the end of April for now.

Once we feel it is safe, we will get right back to it. We can't wait. In the meantime, we are still working behind the scene – reorganizing the shop, trucks, checking all inventory for all jobs.

We are hoping, very soon, to continue turning your dreams into reality.

FREE ADVICE

Also, anybody that would like to just ask some questions about any type of renovation, you might be doing yourself or want to do in the future and need some free advice.

Please e-mail: champagne@bmts.com or call me 519 396-7006. I'm here to help.

STAY SAFE

PETE AT CHAMPAGNE RENOVATIONS

One last blast of winter hit Kincardine the morning of April 15. Sanders and sidewalk plows could be seen on the streets before 9 a.m. Bright sunshine melted most of the snow by the end of the day. (Tammy Schneider photo)

Taking care of business.

Supporting each other goes way beyond Masterfeeds and our respective corners of the country throughout this COVID-19 crisis.

Farmers always rise to the challenge, it's what they do day-in and day-out. As do Masterfeeds employees. Keeping our mills operating and animals fed is a vital link in Canada's food chain – and particularly today. Keeping Canadians fed is our primary task at hand.

I would like to personally thank our farming communities, plant and office staff, our dealers and retail locations, and the many truck drivers who are getting the job done. Your overwhelming efforts in keeping our business operating effectively during this challenging time is very much recognized and appreciated. Well done.
